to hammer the sphere with sufficient force to lead the Nationel League in batting by a comfortable margin. To prove his consistency with the stick, the second-scacker gained one point over his average of the previous week and now has a mark of .420.

While he gained a point in total batting, he also gained in another respect—in home-run hitting. He is now ted with long George Kelly, of the Glents, in home runs, with thirteen.

The Phillies fell off in their batting during the past week with the possible exception of Emil Meusel, who lost one point during that time. Long Cy Williams' failure to hit safely in three games during the week cost him eleven points in his average, and his mark is now .351, which is one point better than Meusel's.

Delaware Betts suffered the biggest makes and manager. Ty Cobb, and Tris Speaker, manager of the Indians. The Cobb fell off four points in his hit-ting during the week, but Speaker took the biggest drop among the three lead-ters. The Cleveland manager lost ten precious points since last Saturday and his average is now .384.

Several doors and windows in the neighborhood were crushed in by the pressure of the throng, which choked the streets from building to building.

Police re-enforcements finally fought their way to the center of the crowd and asked Carpentier politely to make the rest of his journey home in a taxicab the police had brought so that the crowd would disperse.

Carpentier arrived at Havre last night from New York with the intention of spending several weeks in France before again visiting the United States early next fall.

Georges Praises Dempsey

Havre, July 23.—Georges Carpentier arrived here last night from New York early next fall.

In an interview shortly after he landed, Carpentier declared that he considered Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing champion, unquestionably the best fighter of the present day, and said that he thought the heavyweight title would be safe in Dempsey's hands for four or five years.

Bingles and Bungles

Yesterday's Big Noise—Have Robertson, of Pittsburgh, crashed into right-field stand in catching Southworth's fig in the opening game. He collapsed after the catch, but recovered sufficiently to get three of the five singles the Pirates made off McQuillan.

Goldle Rapp, by getting his two singles yesterday, ran his consecutive hitting streak up to fifteen games. He has made at least one hit in every game since joining the Phils.

No games were played in the American cague yesterday. The boys all enjoyed the est, the Indians and two other clubs, espe-New York, however, did not take the day off. The Yanks played a game with the Firestones, of Akron, and won, 20 to 3. Babe Ruth helped in the victory by socking a homer than went 408.

An inquisitive fan writes and asks who nd what is a ground-leeper? The only an wer we have. Carolina, is this: A ground-leeper is a dumb-bell that grabs a tape and heasures the distance every time a hone ball trial, un is hit.

When Parkison caught Maisel's liner in the second every one Pa's honded a surprise. The former Paterson Silk Sor was the most surprised of all, for he didn't even know he had it.

George Kelly, of the Giants hit his four-teenth home run of the season yestegday. All that the circuit smuch did was to keep the McGrawmen from being shut-out by the Reds.

of many climes was that the greens suited. And this was a tournament decided mostly on the greens. They were built for Barnes' style, the experts figure. He seems to turn his blade over little, to putt with a drag, you might say, and keen them close,

Some of the greens went sour unfortunately just before the tourney. Fungus crept out and ate the grass-like a ring-worm. Sand was sprinkled on them to minimize the glassy effect and Barnes best had the touch for them. He used to putt on some greens like them down South and couldn't be them down South and couldn't be beaten. But all the same the rest of his same was going great guns and had to be. His woods and irons had the crowds whistling and cheering all the

Had the Courage

Added to this, President Harding Barnes had the temperament and the courage. So it was a land.

As for the rest of the field, look what Jock Hutchison, fresh from his triumph in the British open, didn't even finish in the money. I'utting crowded him back there and there's a sentiment
